

Impact Report 2025 - 2026

Southdown

About Us

For over 50 years Southdown has provided housing, care, and support across Sussex

We believe everyone has the right to feel safe, be well, and live the life they choose

We are guided by our values:

- Being a force for good
- Brilliant with people
- United
- Trustworthy
- Responsive

How we work

We put people first by listening to clients, tenants, and staff

We spend money carefully to protect services

We look after our staff so they can treat our clients better

We believe in strong leadership and management

How we helped

11,075

We supported 11,075 people across Sussex this year

All of our homes met the Decent Homes Standard

Almost everyone said that getting our support made a positive difference for them

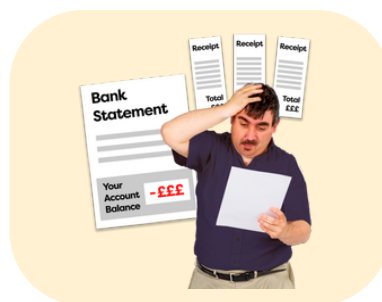

Our support helped people feel safer in their homes, more confident, and better at managing their lives

We supported 719 people who were facing homelessness to secure and keep safe, affordable housing

Our Supported Employment services supported 2,746 people

Our financial Inclusion team supported 843 people to improve their financial wellbeing

We supported starting new Neighbourhood Mental Health Teams

Our online mental health service supported 1,039 people

Our 'Staying Well' service helped 1,658 people in mental health crisis

UOK: working in partnership

This year we found out that our UOK project will continue for another 5 years, or more

UOK works with 23 community organisations to make mental health and wellbeing services better in Brighton and Hove

In the last year, UOK has helped over a 1000 people to get help with their mental health in their local communities

What people told us

"I'm treated like I'm a human being."

"It's taught me that good things can happen with change."

"Unlike other big housing associations, Southdown takes care of you."

"I think it's fundamental that spaces like this exist."

Thank you

Southdown's work has been made possible by people and communities around us. We are thankful for everyone who supported our work

Together we are building a brighter future. We look forward to seeing all that we can achieve in the years to come
